A WOMAN, for selling liquor without a license, was arraigned before the Mayor this morning.
SARAH RAY, the colored woman who "got religion" Saturday night, is ordered to propel a wheelbarrow through the streets for thirty days.
THE atmosphere of the city is redolent of the guano which is stowed in the storehouses on Water street. Can nothing be done to remedy the intolerable nuisance?

CLOTHING is down, money being scarce, we are offering our entire stock of clothing, boots and shoes at suspension prices.

New York House,

TAKE WARNING.—Boys, the Mayor had arraigned before him this morning, three youngsters, for throwing stones in the street, and required their parents to pay a fine of $5 25 and costs each.
Lookout, that you are not hauled up for the same offense.

A MAN was assailed on Saturday night by a woman, who hurled a liquor bottle at his head. Not liking his straight, he sweetened her with a stick and knocked her down. The Mayor will adjudicate the little matter tomorrow.

OWING to the late panic we will sell until January 1st, our entire stock at 25 per cent. less than New York cost.

LADIES' BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.—The President desires to acknowledge, with thanks, a donation from the Ladies Concordia Society of $32 20 for the benefit of the poor of the city.
Journal and Star please copy.

FIRE.—About one o'clock this p. m. the roof of the dwelling of Mr. S. G.
Hall, on the corner of McLaure and Mulberry streets, was discovered to be on fire. The devouring element was extinguished, before a general alarm was given, by the timely assistance of some colored men. The origin of the fire is not known.

MEETING AT BURGAW.—A Republican meeting was held at Burgaw on Saturday, which was well attended.
Several announcements were made, all of which were received with attention.
Speeches were made by all the candidates present; and by several who were not candidates. The meeting did not formally endorse any one of the candidates.

EFFECTS of panic tremendous: Tumble in prices at
S. HANSTEIN & Co's
New York House,

EXTENSIONS.—Among the recent extensions and improvements in our city, we notice that of drug stores. Formerly when one wished to get a prescription filled, he was compelled to come down to Front and Market streets. Now they can be reached easily at any hour of the night, in different portions of our city.
In this connection we note that Messrs.
Munds Brothers have purchased the drug establishment on the corner of Fourth and Hanover streets, where they are prepared to fill all prescriptions, and we would recommend them to the attention and patronage of that section of the city.

THE TOWN CRIER.

Windy.
Gold is 111 1/2.
Several Sound parties are on the tapis.

—Read the advertisement of the Cotton Mills.
—The pavement on Second, between Market and Princess streets, is completed.

—Several women are in the chain gang, working out a penal servitude for drunkenness.
—Mr. Elijah Willis has a very neat little drug store on the corner of Seventh and Mulberry streets.

—The box sheet for the sale of reserved seats for the Wallace Sisters will be open to-morrow morning.

—Two persons were immersed at the First Baptist Church last night. The stately edifice was literally crammed.

—More noise on the streets Saturday night than we have heard for a long time. We thought the Ohio crusaders were in town.

—A person driving out yesterday afternoon, had the misfortune of completely demolishing a buggy and walking five miles to get to the city.

SOME PERSON broke into the wood house of the Associate Editor on Saturday night, and took a small quantity of wood. We wonder the thief did not take a stove which was in the house.
His forbearance will be rewarded here and hereafter.

ALARM OF FIRE.—The alarm of fire on Sunday morning about 2 o'clock, was caused by the bursting of a kerosene lamp, in a house of ill-fame, near the corner of Fourth and Castle streets.— The fire department were out promptly, but the fire was extinguished before the engines could arrive at the scene of the disaster.

RAID.—Saturday night a raid was made upon the chicken coop of Mr. H.
B. Eilers, at his residence on the corner of Fifth and Orange street. Officer Brown found fourteen of the chickens under Bonybridge about two o'clock Sunday morning and carried them to the guard house. When found the chickens had not long been killed, as the bodies were warm. They were turned over to Mr. Eilers yesterday morning.

SHOT AT.—Some villain, who had no fear of the jail, a hawk-eyed watchman and a couple of ferocious dogs, but who showed a decided preference for turkeys, attempted, on Saturday night, to steal three from a chicken house in the jail yard. The victim of kleptomania was seen scaling the wall with the dogs close upon him, and the watchman hurried his flight by discharging a lead ball in hot haste after him. He can get the seat of his breaches by calling on the jailer.

BOAT CAPSIZED.—Yesterday afternoon, about two o'clock, four young men were out sailing in the Cape Fear River, apparently bent upon their own enjoyment, and ignoring the Fourth Commandment. When nearly opposite Market street dock, and about fifty yards from the opposite shore, the boat capsized, and had it not been for the timely assistance rendered from vessels in the neighborhood, they might possibly have been ushered into the presence of their Maker.

WALLACE SISTERS.—These charming little actresses will show here on Wednesday and Thursday night, as we have stated before. We predict for them a palpable hit at the Opera House, and new laurels to twine in their garland of fame. The Brooklyn Eagle says: The Wallace Sisters have made a golden hit at the Opera House. Jennie is a great favorite. Great girl that Jennie. Can sing like a lark and dance like a fairy.
She is also a capital actress, and well deserves the immense popularity which she enjoys. Minnie and Maud Wallace have no superiors in their specialties.

"GOT RELIGION."—Saturday night, about 11 o'clock, the residents in the vicinity of Seventh and Mulberry streets were alarmed by the terrible screaming of a woman, and upon repairing to the spot from whence the noise proceeded, a colored woman was found on her knees with her hands clasped, shouting "I've got religion," etc. A policeman hearing the noise, hurried to the place, and discovered the neck of a bottle poking out of her dress pocket, and upon asking several questions, he found that she was effected more by the spirits than by true genuine religion, though, however, she was not a believer in spiritualism. She rested her bones in the lock-up yesterday, where, in the shades of retirement, she could ruminate o'er the subject, undisturbed.

CORRESPONDENCE.

EDITOR POST: Something ought to be done to secure a proper central site for the Post Office. It ought to be in Market street, or on Second or Front street, between Market and Princess streets. In order to test the liberality of our citizens, it would be well to ascertain, in some public way, who will furnish the best place for the least money. Your correspondent is ready to help the United States Government in this matter, and not to make money out of it. FAIR PLAY.

A Tennessee Dungeon.
A gentleman connected with the engineer department, Cincinnati Southern Railway, gave an account of a most cruel case of imprisonment at Huntsville, Scott County, Tenn., during the summer of 1872. The remarkable prisoner and the circumstances attending his confinement were first brought to the notice of the engineers by a lawyer named Overton, who was in that county investigating some land titles. Being in Huntsville one day, Overton's attention was attracted by the conversation of some frequenters of an apple-brandy "mill." The party were much excited over the cruel and outrageous imprisonment of "one of our fellows," at the instance of some wretch of a United States marshal. Overton's sympathies were excited, and he inquired the cause and circumstances of the imprisonment.

"That he is," said the spokesman of the party; "over there on the fence." Overton looked across the street and beheld a seedy individual perched upon the fence, leisurely whittling a pine shingle. The sympathetic lawyer approached the prisoner and inquired of him if he was in trouble.
Prisoner—Yes; put me in here; charge of 'licit stillin'." O—And they keep you pretty close?
Prisoner—Jailer? Ha! any. Carry the keys myself.
At this juncture the party from the drinking shop had crossed the street and came up to where Overton and the prisoner were talking.
"Yaas," said the spokesman; "it's a shame. Them marshals had better not come about here no more. Come over and have a drink."
And the whole party, prisoner included, adjourned to the "mill" and took a drink of brandy.

In a few days "one of the boys" of the engineer corps, who had heard of this remarkable prisoner, visited the jail at Huntsville. The door stood wide open, and a man was in the only room, alone, hammering away at some sort of carpenter work.
In answer to the question if he was the unfortunate person who was suffering the misfortunes of imprisonment for the crime of making a few gallons of eye-opener, he replied:
"Y-a-a-s. Got me in here." And the suffering convict put on such a look of distress that the man of transits and targets said:
"An outrageous shame. Come over and let's have a drink."
And over went the two, the prisoner locking the door behind him.
The next day one or two of the engineer corps met this foully used convict in the woods, with a gun on one shoulder and a lot of game over the other.
In answer to a question they got the stereotyped reply:
"Y-a-a-s. Got me in here. 'Licit 'stillin'."

A few days more, and one of the engineers met the oppressed individual three miles from Huntsville, on his way home to spend a few days with his family.
"Ank you're the prisoner?"
"Y-a-a-s; got me in here."
The facts herein are vouched for by the gentleman who related them. The circumstances reveal an amount of cold-blooded cruelty upon the part of the citizens and officials of Scott county rarely equalled in modern times.

Prospectus for 1874-Seventy-seventh year

THE ALDINE

An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or Music Stores

THE ALDINE while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is unique and original, and cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for the same cost; and then, there is the chromo, better!

ART DEPARTMENT, 1874.

The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world-wide reputation, and in the center of Europe it is an admitted fact that its wood cuts are examples of the highest perfection ever attained. The common prejudice in favor of "steel plates," is rapidly yielding to more cultured and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality with greater facility of production. The woodcuts of THE ALDINE possess all the delicacy and elaborate finish of the most costly steel plate, while they afford a better rendering of the artist's original.

To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other decent representations of the productions of great painters.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest. Thus the subscribers to THE ALDINE will at a trifling cost, enjoy in their own home the pleasure and refining influences of true art.

THE Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs, appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attraction any of its predecessors.

PREMIUM FOR 1874.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos.
The original pictures were painted in oil for the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great original picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent "The Adirondack," "The Adirondack," and "The Adirondack," and the pictures were in the White Mountains New Hampshire the other gives the Cliffs of Green River, Wyoming Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves in a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromos are each worked upon a separate plate, and are in size (12 x 18) and appearance exactly the same as the originals. The presentation of a worthy example of modern landscape painting to the subscribers of THE ALDINE was a bold and peculiarly happy idea, and the result is a picture attested by the following testimonial, over the signature of Mr. Moran himself.

"NEWARK, N. J., Sept 20th, 1873.
MESSRS. JAMES C. MANN & CO., Gentlemen,—I am delighted with the proofs of the color of your chromos. They are wonderfully successful representation by mechanical process of the original paintings.
Very respectfully,
(Signed) THOS. MORAN.

These chromos are in every sense American.
They are by an original American process, with material of American manufacture, from designs of American scenery by an American painter, and are presented to subscribers to the first successful American Art Journal. If no better because of all this they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can inspire, and neither are they any the worse if by reason of peculiar facilities of production they cost the publishers only a trifle, while each in every respect other chromo that are sold singly for double the subscription price of THE ALDINE.

Many subscribers would indicate a preference for a figure subject, the publishers will send "The Adirondack," a new and beautiful chromo, 12 x 18 inches, representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longings of his heart.

$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free.

For 50 Cents Extra, the chromos will be sent, mounted, varnished, and prepaid by mail.

THE ALDINE will hereafter be obtainable only by subscription. They will be reduced or club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or sent to the local canvasser, without reservation to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the facsimile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.

THE SUN.

WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND
DAILY.

THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require any extended recommendation, but the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will continue to give it many thousands more are briefly as follows.

It is a first rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when important, and always presented in a clear, intelligible, and interesting manner.

It is a first rate family paper, containing entertaining and instructive reading of every kind, but containing nothing that can offend the most delicate and scrupulous taste.

It is a first rate story paper. The best tales and romances of current literature are carefully selected and legibly printed in its pages.

It is a first rate agricultural paper. The most fresh and instructive articles on agricultural topics regularly appear in this department.

It is an independent political paper, belonging to no party and wearing no colors.
It fights for principle, and for the election of the best men to office. It is especially devoted to the cause of the poor, the oppressed, the weak, and the ignorant, and it disgrace our country and threaten to undermine republican institutions altogether. It reports the fashions for the ladies and the markets for the men, especially the daily markets, to which it pays particular attention.

Finally, it is the cheapest paper published.
One dollar a year will secure it for any subscriber. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have THE WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Any one who sends a single dollar will get the paper for a year.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty six columns. Only $1.00 a year. No discount on per cent, to clubs of 10 or over.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY SUN.—Same size and the Daily Sun, $2.00 a year. A discount of 10 per cent, to clubs of 10 or over.

THE DAILY SUN.—A large four page newspaper of twenty eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription price 50 cents a month, or $6.00 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a dis-
